

Vermuteo

Vermuteo is a laid-back Spanish tradition that brings a taste of Catalonia and the Mediterranean spirit to London. Best enjoyed during the late morning hours, it's a social ritual where friends gather to share small plates of tapas — from marinated olives to artisanal cheeses and cured meats — perfectly paired with vermouth, craft beers, or natural wines. A moment to slow down, connect, and savour life's simple pleasures, inspired by the Mediterranean way of living.
